Biography:

Tilly began dancing at the age of 4, and after completing her A-Levels she trained at Rambert School of Ballet and Contemporary Dance in London for 3 years, followed by achieving a Master's Degree whilst touring with Emergence Dance Company. Now she works as a dancer, actor and model in feature films, short films, TV shows, music videos, commercials, fashion shows, fashion campaigns, e-commerce and editorial projects. Alongside her classical styles she also performs with a hip-hop and commercial company, allowing her to diversify her dance expression. Tilly enjoys being creative, collaborative and playful within her work, and intertwining dancing, acting and modelling makes every project different and exciting.

Alongside her artistic practice, she teaches dance to young children which is a really joyful experience. She also loves yoga, spending time in nature, reading, travelling and practising French and Spanish.
